

Please do not lessen the Indiana "no-call" privacy law.
The law has improved our quality of home life significantly.
The annoying telemarketer calls are now virtually non-existent.
Don't mess with the success Indiana has achieved.
In fact, the FCC should use Indiana as a model.